FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

DALLAS, TX — Conway MacKenzie, Inc. is pleased to announce the addition of Kent J. Laber as a Managing Director in the firm's Dallas office.

Kent provides a full range of crisis management services throughout North America to under-performing companies across a deep range of industries, including: interim management and debtor advisory; secured and unsecured lender advisory; litigation support; merger and acquisition advisory; valuation; and debt restructuring and refinancing. His recent casework includes serving as President and responsible officer of Acme Packaging, Inc., financial advisor to the unsecured term loan lenders to a $4 billion private REIT with retail investments nationwide, financial advisor to the second lien and debtor-in-possession lenders of Fedders Corporation, and financial advisor to the secured term loan lenders of nationwide gas and diesel logistics provider. He also served as M&A advisor to a Dallas-based pre-owned automobile sales and finance company.

Prior to joining Conway MacKenzie, Kent was the President and Senior Managing Director of a boutique restructuring and M&A firm in Dallas, Texas. Kent earned a Master of Business Administration in Finance from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Notre Dame. His credentials include: Certified Public Accountant (Texas and Colorado), Certified Turnaround Professional, Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor and is Certified in Financial Forensics. He is active in the Dallas community serving on the Board of Directors of the Lake Highlands Family YMCA.
