Conway MacKenzie expands consulting services to Europe

Conway MacKenzie & Dunleavy, a turnaround and consulting firm in Birmingham, is turning the global recession into a global opportunity for referral business.

Last week, the firm announced it had affiliated with Bryan Tappy & Tilley, a consulting firm in London, to provide services to European firms and to better serve U.S. firms with European operations.

Closer to home, CMD is expected to announce this week that Craig Ghelfi, former COO at Greektown Casino, has joined the firm's casino-restructuring practice.
