

Leaders in Investment Banking and Restructuring Solutions for the Automotive Industry

To say that 2008 was a difficult year in the credit and capital markets would be a gross understatement. Capital raising, refinancing/restructuring of debt, acquisitions and divestitures have all been greatly impacted by the current liquidity crisis. In these challenging times it is important that you turn to an advisor that has the specialized experience you require in order to effect a successful transaction. CM&D Capital Advisors LLC ("CM&D Capital") has in-depth experience across a multitude of sectors within the automotive OEM and aftermarket supply base.

CM&D Capital

CM&D Capital is a leader in developing and executing investment banking and restructuring solutions that deliver superior results for middle market suppliers. Dealing with challenging circumstances in the automotive sector requires specific industry knowledge. Our experience in working with multiple constituents in difficult situations, including customers, suppliers, creditors, equity sponsors and shareholders provides our clients optimal outcomes. We can address your needs in a variety of transaction scenarios including:

- Capital Raising - Senior and junior capital
- Restructuring - Within existing creditor groups and/or third party sponsors
- Mergers & Acquisitions - Normal course transactions and 363 sale processes
